

Going to Bat for Education!

Diocese of Brooklyn/Queens Futures
in Education Foundation

The Brooklyn Cyclones are going to bat for
THE FUTURES IN EDUCATION FOUNDATION
on Wednesday, July 23, 2008!

Monsignor Bracken will throw out the ceremonial first pitch!
*Rally Around Your Teams!

A portion of ticket sales will be donated in support of need-based scholarships for the children of Brooklyn and Queens.

The game is July 23, 2008 versus the Vermont Lake Monsters at 7:00 P.M.

Supporting our effort is easy:

- 🔗 Visit www.brooklyncyclones.com and go to tickets tab.
- 🔗 Click on the Ticket Specials tab.
- 🔗 Click on the Partnership Promotions link.
- 🔗 Enter the Promotional Code: FUTURES
- 🔗 Follow the instructions to purchase the appropriate number of tickets in the area you would like to sit.
- 🔗 Purchase the tickets using a Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover credit card.

The tickets will then be mailed directly to the purchaser, effectively cutting a step out of the group process. There is a $2 per ticket service charge for the ease and convenience of the online process, but as an added benefit we have waived our usual $3 per order online fee, giving you even more of a discount.

Be sure to use the FUTURES code! This will help determine the amount that will be donated by the Cyclones.

All Friends of FUTURES who purchase tickets online qualify for a very special raffle to be awarded that evening at the game.

For further information call:

The Futures in Education Foundation

(718) 965-7340

or visit our website:

www.futuresineducation.org

Let's make this night a BIG HIT!