

Angel Reception

Angels have the opportunity if they choose to meet their students at the Annual Angel Reception. Clarissa Holmgren Elgarten, chairperson of the Angel Program, says, "I think what makes the Angel Program so wonderful is that you see the results of what you are doing." There is no better way to see your generosity in action than to meet the students and families who are assisted through the Angel program. The Angel reception provides a relaxed environment where Angel students can interact and communicate with their Angel sponsor. It is a very hands on way to see the difference your gift makes.

be an Angel
to a Student

be an Angel to a Student

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!!!
 Summer was full of fun and second child in college! They will both attend LSU in Louisiana!
 Without you I could not see Courtney to go to college at all!
 My gratitude - our gratitude is never ending. What a full future you've given my child. He is so thankful as well. He is dedicated to make you proud of him. He has been told you are the reason his future is so bright.
 Thank you my Angel!

Be an Angel to a child... provide the gift of education

This letter was written by a parent whose child was able to attend one of our schools as a result of the generosity of an Angel. There are hundreds of other students who are awaiting the same opportunities as this child. Angels are matched one-on-one with students from financially struggling families. Angels:

- Receive progress reports, cards and letters from the student(s)
- Usually make a multi-year commitment; 100% of their gift goes to the child
- Can specify the school, neighborhood, or student profile and make their gift in honor/memory of a loved one
- Contribute roughly half of the annual tuition payment for the child (their family provides the rest)

Every year hundreds of children
await an Angel - you can be an Angel today
